

Job Title: Production Technician

Reports to: Production Supervisor

Location: Dorchester

Scope:

Accountable to the Production manager, the Production Technician will be responsible for a variety of production tasks. They will be responsible for the manufacture and test of a variety of products and assist the production and development teams, as necessary.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assembly and manufacture.
- Product testing.
- Use of adhesives.
- Use of hand tools and workshop facilities, including lathe.
- Performing quality checks.
- Manufacturing support for new product development
- Liaise with internal teams to resolve internal (PA) problems as required.
- Maintaining stock levels.
- Record keeping and procedure documentation
- ISO; working to all ISO processes.
- H&S; working to health & safety standards.
- Supporting and working towards the Company vision and values.

Experience

Essential

- Good attention to detail
- Able to work under own initiative
- Ability to work within a quality system
- Can do attitude

Desirable

- Experience in a manufacturing or workshop environment desirable
- An understanding of electronics and principles of electrical assembly
- Soldering of components
- Demonstrable ability to use a selection of hand tools