Hydrophone Resources

Introducing Our New Video

We have a new sub-titled, short video available: "Hydrophone Introduction with Dr Andrew Hurrell". This explains our different hydrophones and their uses, and is on our website at <https://www.acoustics.co.uk/reference/>

In this video Andrew talks through some features and usage considerations of our needle, membrane and fibre optic hydrophone ranges. We hope you find this useful!

Did you know ...

In addition to the video, we have a product selector sheet and a tutorial. Click here for the product selector sheet or here for a tutorial on choosing a hydrophone.

If you need a longer introduction to the hydrophone types discussed you can find tutorial videos here on our website.

Please contact our Hydrophones team on +44 (0)1305 264669 if you have any questions or are unable to view any of these videos.
